

KIDNER CONTRACTING PTY LTD

POSITION VACANT

Diesel Fitter/Workshop Manager

Kidner Contracting is a family owned and run business that specialise in Civil Construction. We have an exciting opportunity for Diesel Fitter Manager to join our team in Ravenshoe, FNQ.

The Role:

- Permanent full-time position
- Responsible for performing maintenance scheduling and servicing for all Fleet.
- Major repairs and prestart checklist maintenance.
- Breakdowns on and off-site.

Experience and Qualifications:

- Hold a relevant Trade Qualification (HD Diesel Fitter)
- Extensive experience and knowledge in repairing, servicing and breakdowns of heavy plant, equipment and heavy vehicle truck fleet.
- Electrical and air conditioning experience.
- Preventative maintenance, along with fault identification and rectification.
- Hydraulic Hose Repairs
- Coordinate and manage maintenance scheduling and servicing. Liaise and correspond with office personnel with updated fleet records.
- The ability to manage staff, train apprentices, be self-motivated, and work as part of a team.
- Attention to detail and committed to Workplace, Health and Safety
- HR Licence and a Refrigerant Licence (Advantageous)
- Great time management skills – operate with high level of productivity to ensure deadlines are met and machineries for Dept of Transport.
- Excellent communication skills.

The successful applicant must be well presented, self-motivated, a positive and friendly attitude towards work, customers, and teammates.

Benefits include: an attractive rate of pay and employment package will be given. Also, the ability to progress in your career.

Written applications, including Resumé, should be submitted by 4pm on Wednesday 3rd March and addressed to the Manager, Kidner Contracting Pty Ltd, 13 Carrick Street, Ravenshoe, QLD, 4888 or emailed to office@kidners.com.au